

GHS Training Quiz

- 1) In the context of workplace safety, the letters GHS stand for:
  - A. Global Health and Safety
  - B. Globally Harmonized System
  - C. Guidance Health Settings
  - D. Geneva Harmony Settlement

- 2) The GHS standardizes the way chemical hazards are classified so that workplace chemical hazard communication will be the same all over the world.
  - A. True
  - B. False

- 3) The 3 main types of hazards covered by the GHS are:
  - A. Safety, Health and Environment
  - B. Toxic, Flammable and Physical
  - C. Combustible Dusts, Health and Oxidizing
  - D. Physical, Health and Environmental
  - E. Gaseous, Liquid and Solid

- 4) Important information on the hazards, protective measures and safe use of a material can be found on the container label.
  - A. True
  - B. False

- 5) More detailed information on the hazards, protective measures and safe use of a material can be found in the SDS.
  - A. True
  - B. False

- 6) In the GHS, the letters SDS stand for:
  - A. Safe Directives and Standards
  - B. Safe Disposal and Storage
  - C. Secure Disposal and Storage
  - D. Safety Data Sheet
  - E. Safety Directive Sheet

- 7) The two “Signal Words” used in the GHS are:
  - A. Caution and Warning
  - B. Danger and Caution
  - C. Danger and Attention!
  - D. Beware and Avoid!
  - E. Danger and Warning

- 8) The signal word “Warning” means the hazard is “Less Serious”.
  - A. True
  - B. False

- 9) Information on personal protective equipment (PPE) that must be used when handling a material is found on the label under the heading “Hazard Statements” and on the SDS in Section 13.
  - A. True
  - B. False

- 10) Information on the hazards of a material is found on the label under the “Hazards Statements” heading and in Section 2 (Hazard Identification) of the SDS.
  - A. True
  - B. False

---

Print Name

---

Signature

---

Date